Bunker Goat's Cheese (pasteurized goat's milk)

This is a pure and creamy cheese with a light sweetness. It ages for seven months in bunkers, making it more firm and tasteful.

La Timanoix (pasteurized cow's milk)

During the aging process this wine is washed and brushed with some nut liqueur, which gives it a special aroma and walnut taste.

Delice de Bourgogne (pasteurized cow's milk)

The cheese has a very creamy and delicate texture. The crust is soft and white with a mealy texture and a slight aroma of mushrooms.

St. Marcellin (raw cow's milk)

Notes of hazelnut with a fruity undertone combined with its creamy texture make the flavour of this cheese a real adventure.

Taleggio (pasteurized cow's milk)

Beautiful delicate taste, a slight sweetness and a combination of white truffles and almonds.

Epoisses (raw cow's milk)

This cheese has been made since the 16th century. It ages between 5-8 weeks.

Manchego DOP (pasteurized sheep's milk)

Slightly tangy and salty flavour because of the 9-month maturing. Produced in La Mancha, which is also home to Don Quixote.

Schlossberger Alt (raw cow's milk)

A Swiss cheese which has aged in a cave for the duration of 16 months.

Delfts Goud Oud (pasteurized cow's milk)

The milk is aged for at least 12 months. The flavour is creamy and well-aged.

Farmhouse Truffle (raw cow's milk)

This Dutch lightly aged cheese has a delicate taste of black truffle.

Blauwklaver (pasteurized cow's milk)

A creamy blue cheese with a salty crust which combines well with its farm-like character.

Valdeon Cabrales (pasteurized goat's, sheep's & cow's milk)

This is a handmade English blue cheese from Lancashire. It is creamy with a subtle taste of blue cheese.
